Teaching our Children

Spring Quarter classes begin next Sunday, March 3. The HCoC is truly blessed with young children, teens, and families. We encourage you to bring your children to Sunday School as they will experience a good foundation of Bible knowledge and grow closer to God in service to others. What better way to grow spiritually with their peers than in Sunday School class!

Class schedules will be on the table in the foyer.

³Children are a gift from the Lord.

Psalm 137:3

⁶These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. ⁷Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

Deuteronomy 6:6-7

⁶Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it.

25 "That is why I tell you not to worry about everyday life—whether you have enough food and drink, or enough clothes to wear. Isn't life more than food, and your body more than clothing? 26 Look at the birds. They don't plant or harvest or store food in barns, for your heavenly Father feeds them. And aren't you far more valuable to him than they are? 27 Can all your worries add a single moment to your life? 28 "And why worry about your clothing? Look at the lilies of the field and how they grow. They don't work or make their clothing, 29 yet Solomon in all his glory was not dressed as beautifully as they are. 30 And if God cares so wonderfully for wildflowers that are here today and thrown into the fire tomorrow, he will certainly care for you. Why do you have so little faith?"

FAITH RENEWED
THROUGH BROKENNESS

You're invited to read Matthew 8:23-27 and Matthew 14:22-23 in preparation for Wednesday evening's class.

Join us this evening at 6:00 PM for a time of praising God in song, prayer, and scripture reading. For those who attend, this time has become a valued gathering in a small space that further prepares each of us to be salt and light in the week ahead. Greg's devotional tonight is on our call to be Holy.
